"SALUTATION"

In the years far ahead
When our goals we've all made,
We won't think of the cares that have clouded a day
Or the dreams, idle tears have long washed away.
But we'll think of those things which have meant more to us . . .
Which have brought to us courage to face
All of life's foolish foes that weaken our pace.
We'll think of our school and the pleasures we shared,
And the work that we did,
And the work we were spared.
Then we'll hold high our heads
And smile as we say,
"We salute you, dear Morrison, we love you today!"

ARLYN MOORE ABBOTT
"Abbott"

"Let there be music, laughter and gaiety."

Arlyn is a "happy-go-lucky" girl, forever in michief, and is always ready to cheer us when we are feeling blue. If we hear a light tune or the sound of tap dancing, we may well be sure it is she. She is a good student and a good friend to all.

HARRY EUGENE ATKINSON

"Seagull"

"Success is the greatest of all goals."

Harry is a silent, resolute young gentleman. His determination and ability is sure to bring success iinto hs grasp. He is a true friend.

ROGER RATCLIFFE AUMAN
"Peewee"

"All things come to him who has patience."

"Peewee" has played varsity football for four years and leaves behind an enviable record not only as an athlete but as a student. He is a popular young man with both girles and boys. He is shy but mischievious and good natured.

MARY CRAIG BARCLAY
"Mays"

"True frends are like diamonds, precious and rare."

Here's to Mary, with the friendly smile and happy-go-lucky manner. Her friendly spirit has won her many friends at M. H. S. We know she will be a success in whatever she undertakes.

FRANCES EVELYN BARNHART

"BARNEY"

We find "Barney" a reserved and unassuming girl. She is a good sport and when she attempts anything she is sure to succeed. She will be missed by the friends left in M. H. S.

ELMO HOLLAND BLOXOM

"Buster"

"Buster" is stuck
When it comes to luck.
"Buster" is neat,
A boy we're glad to meet.
"Buster" is, oh, so handsome,
But he never collects the ransom.

ROSCOE HIDEN BOWERS

"Boscoe"

"His friendship cannot be measured in gold."

Roscoe's unusual popularity and versatility are shown by the fact that he is President of the Senior Class, Editor-in-Chief of the Annual, Captain of the football team, and Treasurer of the Hi-Hatters Club.

WILLIAM KENNETH BRADSHAW

"Wimpy"

"Once a friend, always a friend."

Here's to Kenneth who has been a true friend to us all through our four years of school. We regret losing his friendship and hope that as he goes out into the world he may gain as many new friends as he had while in school.

LAURA MAE BUTLER

"Silence is golden."

Laura Mae is a quiet, sweet girl, who is always willing to help someone. We are sure she will succeed in anything she undertakes.

IRENE BAUGHAN BUTTERWORTH

"Butterworks"

"Let us have music, my feet stand not still."

Heartbreaker-Whow! Nevertheless we'll forgive Irene for this fault because she has other good traits that will cover this. She is a good dancer, a dandy sport, and a friend to everyone.

L. NELL COCHRAN

"Venus"

"Everything is as you take it."

Although Nell is one of our successful arguers she has won many friends at Morrison High School. The Seniors wish her the best of luck always.

RUTH KLYNE COX

"Weenie"

"Not too sober, not too gay,
A good true girl in every way."

Everyone likes an attractive girl — that's Klyne. She does not only hit the spot but she also hits the notes. Some day she'll become a great opera singer — Eh, Klyne?

Best wishes
Laura Mae

Always
"Renie"

Best wishes
for success
Nell

But I love
Klyne.

DOROTHY HELEN CURTIS

"Dot"

There will be a vacancy in Morison High when "Dot" leaves that is hard to fill. Mrs. Geddy especially will have difficulty in finding a student to fill "Dot's" shoes in history class.

ROY EDWARD DOLAN

"Sweetpea"

Roy is keen about athletics. He has won high favor for his work in football and in baseball. He is also believed to be one of the gentlemen who prefer blondes.

ROBERT POWELL DUDLEY

"Bob"

"Bob" is one of the Senior boys who always takes a part in whatever class he's in. He makes good speeches and we know he will succeed.

ROBERT MASON DUNN, Jr.

"Bob"

"A fair exterior is a silent recommendation."

Attractive, witty and a good friend, that's "Bob." The way "Bob" can juggle figures is astonishing, for he is graduating with five Math credits on his record. And just listen to those excuses. The world is going to be a little brighter place when "Bob" launches on his career.

KATHERINE KLINE EDWARDS

"Possum"

"The perpetual question mark."

Here's to our friendliest Senior girl. She has won many hearts in the Senior Class of '37 and we know by her ways she will succeed in whatever she may undertake. Here's wishing you luck, "Possum."

MILDRED THELMA ELKINS

"Mill"

"A face wreathed in perpetual smiles."

Here is the most attractive girl in the Senior Class whose laughter and happy-go-lucky ways will always be remembered at old Morrison. May she scale the heights of success in whatever she undertakes.

STUART BEVERLY FULLER

"Stuart"

"Friendship is not to be measured in gold."

Stuart, although he has been with us only two years, is fully recognized as a true friend. He hopes to enter the field of aviation and we know he will be sure to fly straight upward toward success.

EMILY YOUNG GAYLE

"In all the country round
A truer friend cannot be found."

We will all miss Emily with her cheerful smile and manner. She is sympathetic and always ready to help in time of trouble, and a true friend in every way. Morrison's loss is the world's gain.

Luck to you always "Mill"

CHARLES NELSON HARTMAN

"Charlie"

"To be loved, love, and be lovable."

Charlie's chief interests in high school have been playing basketball and making speeches over the radio. His favorite diversion is humming the latest song hits, especially if they pertain to love.

SARAH OPAL HAUGHTON

"Pal"

"Life is but play."

"Pal" is always in a good humor. She is very fond of music and dancing. She is planning a career in the business world, and has already displayed her skill in typing and shorthand.

EDWARD LEE HAWLEY

"LEE"

"Laugh and the world laughs with you; cry and you cry alone!"

Here's to Lee, our smallest Senior boy. He may be small in size but he makes up for it in his friendly ways. Lee, we wish you luck and success in all that you undertake.

MAURICE HAWLEY

"Sonny"

"They always talk who never think."

Maurice, a friendly, good-natured senior, is president of the Hobby Club. He likes to play practical jokes and the girls say he is not averse to flirting.

RUTH ELIZABETH HOSTETTER

"Ruthie"

"All the world loves a lover."

Everything "Ruthie" does, she performs with a great deal of pep and energy. She has taken an active part in such various activities as basketball, glee club and dramatics, but her greatest accomplishment is being a pianist.

RICHARD LENWOOD HUNTER, Jr.

"Dick"

"Dick" is well known at Morrison for his loud voice, and is our source of information on all the latest books. He has a strong personality and is liked by all who know him.

WARWICK GARNER MARSHALL, Jr.

"A fine and sturdy lad was he."

Warwick and his quiet ways will go far toward the goal of success. He has made many friends while here and has the best wishes of us all.

WILLIAM WARNER McPHAIL

"Willie"

"A friend is worth all hazards we can run."

A good pal and a good senior, "Willie." He has won his place in all our hearts with his fun-loving spirit, and he will be remembered for his artistic ability.

W. W. Marshall, Jr.

ANNA PEARL OWENS

"Diddley"

"Thoughtless of beauty, she was beauty's self."

Here's to the prettiest girl of the Senior Class. During her four years at Morrison High, "Diddley" has won many friends through her good disposition and pleasant, unassuming manner.

RACHEL JANE PARKER

"Ray"

"Little but loud."

"Ray" is bubbling over with happiness and good cheer all the time. She is a loyal friend and a delightful companion. We believe she has a domestic turn of mind and very skillful fingers for making pretty things.

JOHN POLLOCK, Jr.

"A man with few words but those words mean a lot."

John has been with us for the full four years. His bashful ways have won him many friends. Here's hoping you success, John.

JACK BARLOW PRESTON

"Barlow"

"Always ready to have some fun."

"Barlow" is a good student and is liked by everyone, although he is a big tease. He is never in a rush or hurry but he always seems to get there.

Jack Preston

ADELAIDE ALLAN RICHARDSON

"Adelaide"

Stylish, vivacious, lovable — all of these adjectives will describe Adelaide. She is a real girl and real friend to all. We can truthfully say that there will never be another girl in Morrison High School who will be missed as much as she.

AUBREY H. ROBERTSON

"Turk"

"True hearted, whole hearted, loyal and faithful."

"Turk" has been with us during all of his four years in high school and has won many friends among us. He is quiet but always ready for a good laugh. We will surely miss his cheerful smile when he leaves Morrison.

HENRY FRANKLIN ROGERS

"Hiney"

"Little but loud."

"Hiney," as he is known by many, is liked by all. He has many friends at Morrison and will be missed when he leaves. No doubt he will make his mark in life and so we say, "Here's to you, 'Hiney,' may success always be yours."

MADISON RUSSELL

"Madison"

Madison is one of the boys of the Senior Class whom we know will suceed. He is full of life and makes friends wherever he is.

JOHN FRANKLIN SNYDER

"Jack"

"The way not to fail is to determine to succeed."

May this modest and "most original boy" who leaves an excellent scholastic record have the success that he is rightfully entitled to.

ALICE VIRGINIA TRAYLOR

"Jimmy"

"If you knew 'Jimmy' as I know 'Jimmy' — oh! oh!"

"Jimmy" is a timid, shy, reserved girl, and the man-hater of our class. During her four years with us she has made many friends.

VIRGINIA LORRAINE TURLINGTON

"Sadie"

Golden hair, sparkling blue eyes, and an ever-ready smile would be noticed by the casual observer. But those of us who are better acquainted with Lorraine know that the picture would not be complete without mention of her sterling qualities, friendliness and generosity.

ROBERT EDWARD WARE

"Bobby"

"A sound mind in a sound body."

"Bobby" is one of Morrison's outstanding athletes. He excels in football and is a very capable baseball and basketball player. He stands above the average in his studies, is a consistent worker in the various school activities, and is well liked by all who know him.

Best of luck,
Mary Waters

MARY ALICE WATERS

"Valuable things come in small packages."

Here is a good sport and a true friend. Mary Alice, who is always full of mischief, is a good pal. Her charming ways have won for her a host of friends at M. H. S.

FORRESTINE LORRAINE WHITAKER

"Peck"

"Once a pal, always a pal."

When the Freshman roll was called back in the fall of '33, Forrestine was here to answer and has been here ever since, as a worthy friend and a good student. "Peck" is our most typical Senior girl and she really deserves this title.

MARY FRANCES WHITE

"Eight ball"

"Take everybody's advice; then do as you please."

We feel that Frances deserves great credit for her school work which she has finished in less than the average time. She is of a most affable disposition and has many admirers among her classmates.

WILMER LINWOOD WILBERN

"Dill Pickle"

"He that hath knowledge spareth his words."

"Dill Pickle" is quiet and dignified, and he is a great scholar. We have all enjoyed having him as a fellow student. When he leaves Morrison we will lose one of its best students.

Best wishes
Wilmer

DOROTHY LEE WILCOX

"Dot"

"A tender heart, a will inflexible."

"Dot" is one of our merriest Seniors and one of the few who is always prompt in doing her work. Ask her for advice or aid in any way and you're sure to get it. In spite of her abundant red hair, her temper is of the best.

"Fish Wishes"
Dot.

THE PORT OF OUR GOAL

The graduating class of 1937 is greatly indebted to Morrison High School, Faculty and Board, for their cooperation and assistance. Their every kindness is appreciated and their effort to aid us to attain the goal for which we have toiled long and earnestly.

In September 1933 a very large and uncomfortable as well as timid Freshman Class embarked on the Good Ship High School for the first trip of the year itinerary.

After the dreaded initiation was over and Warner McPhail had been elected captain, the time passed gaily and eventfully. Every Freshman tried to be subordinate to his superior shipmates; consequently lots of them attended the Sophomore and Junior parties.

The time came all too soon to disembark for the three months summer furlough.

Rested and refreshed again, we embarked as Sophomores, fewer in number than our Freshman Class, with Wilmer Wilbern as skipper and a new class of Freshmen behind us on whom we promptly emphasized our superiority by initiating them.

To create excitement for this year the Crigler Minstrel appeared on board, as well as one of Mr. Mort's musicals. Much arduous labor was put forth by not a few of the Sophomores towards the success of both of these ventures in entertainment.

The year sped by on wings and we soon found ourselves with another furlough ahead.

Our captain for the third trip was Warner McPhail, who guided us over the treacherous shoals of raising money to entertain the Seniors. This labor did not prove to be very arduous and was followed by a much enjoyed banquet and dance.

During the struggle we, the Juniors, acquired our rings, a binding symbol of our friendship.

At the conclusion of this trip we found ourselves tired but happy, facing the last year together.

How different this class, in September 1936, the second largest graduating class in the history of the school, looked marching up the gang plank, in comparison to the timid Freshmen they were only four years earlier. Immediately Roscoe Bowers was promoted to the rank of captain.

The joy of joys was ours, for we were to be the first class to graduate from the new long-expected and recently launched ship. Although the old bark held memories precious to us all, we eagerly took possession the first of October.

This last trip was about half over when a tender came alongside and all hands were called to the quarter deck, where an officer read from a book the orders from the Board of Education, "All pupils on board must take the mid-term examinations."

For days after this visit groups of boys and girls could be seen on deck eagerly scanning notes and textbooks. Soon this excitement passed and we began again to enjoy the whirlwind of fun in which the Seniors live.

"Land ho," cries the watch from his perch in the crow's nest, and everyone rushes to the rail, but alas, we must first report to the division officers on the quarter deck before coming to anchor in the harbor.

After a mighty struggle, we at last find ourselves sadly marching for the last time down the gangway with our diplomas secure in our seabags.

Sad though we are at parting, we are proud and happy that we have at last reached the port that was our goal, Graduation.

FAMILIAR NAMES IN PRINT

In my leisure hours, as head librarian at the Congressional Library, I glanced through the November 26, 1950 issue of the New York Times, carrying glaring headlines, "President Bradshaw Leaves for Peace Conference in Spain." I read further that he was accompanied by three of his cabinet members: Emily Gayle, Secretary of State, Warwick Marshall, Secretary of War, and John Pollock, Secretary of Navy.

In another column I read, "Harvard Confers Degrees." Elmo Bloxom received a Ph.D. in mathematics and Warner McPhail a special degree in art.

I noticed, too, that Edgar Hoover's job in heading the G-men had been taken over by "Bob" Dudley, his chief assistant being Harry Atkinson.

"Tornado Hits Florida." The highest wind in ages, accompanied by heavy rainfall, completely demolished the Spanish villa of Mary Alice Waters, who cartooned Madison Russell's articles on "Happy Homemaking." The orange groves of Opal Haughton and Pearl Owens were also damaged considerably.

"Commencement Exercises for Butter-Barnhart Hospital." Superintendent of nurses, Dorothy Curtis, in a very dignified manner, assisted by Head Surgeon Nell Cochran, presented diplomas to a class of fifty.

Under the heading, "Home Economics Instructor to Resume Duties," I read, "Having completed a tour of Europe, Mary Barclay, home economics instructor at Columbia College, will resume her duties immediately."

"Popular Night Spots." The exclusive Astor Night Club, Roy Dolan, proprietor, has become one of the most popular night clubs in New York Society; playboy Robert Ware is it best customer."

Reading the Wall Street stock quotations I noticed the item "Stocks Soar." "Well-known financier, Roger Auman, president of General Motors, has bought out the Henry Ford Automobile Manufacturing Company."

Sports — "Heavyweight Sensation Scores Again." Lee Hawley, outstanding heavyweight champion, has never lost a fight since turning professional. His latest victory was broadcast last night from Madison Square Garden.

"Best Sellers" — Mildred Elkins, Arlyn Abbott, and Rachel Parker are joint publishers of that popular magazine entitled "How to Get Your Man."

Next I saw the radio program of the week. Station BVM — Monday, 8:00 P. M., Dick Hunter, popular baritone crooner, will sing the latest song hit — "Auld Lang Syne." Station ICE — Tuesday, 9:00 P. M., Lorraine Turlington, prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera, will sing passages from "La Boheim." Station JSV — Wednesday 6:30 P. M. Aubrey Robertson and Charles Hartman will give you the week's news.

Under the classified ads, I noticed Forrestine Whitaker was advertising a home for dogs and she had listed as her present enrollment 3,000.

"Browsing" through more papers, I picked up the Los Angeles News and under theatrical news I read, "Bell-hop Gets Promotion." Stuart Fuller, former bell-hop at the Carlton Hotel, is now "rusher" in the Universal Theater, Los Angeles, where on the stage is Maurice Hawley with his Rhythm Rhapsody Revue, featuring Irene Butterworth, star tap dancer — generally known as the "Giddy Blonde." At this same theatre next week Klyne Cox, Dorothy Wilcox, and Adelaide Richardson, who have taken the place of the Boswell Sisters on the radio, will make a personal appearance.

Also: "Latest Dance Hit — Double Time," The second Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers, none other than Jack Preston and Alice Traylor will be seen at the Chinese Theatre Monday night doing their latest novelty number, "Double Time."

"Actress Barely Escapes Death." Mary Frances White, Paramount's latest screen find, narrowly escaped death today when her automobile, driven by her chauffeur, Wilmer Wilbern, ran off a steep embankment near this city.

"Display of Latest Styles in English Tweeds." A picture on the fashion page, bearing the above title, was of Bob Dunn, streamline model for "Esquire," showing what the well-dressed young man should wear.

I noticed further, "Livestock Prices Boom." Roscoe Bowers, big cattleman in Arizona, and friend wife, the result of a trip to the Texas Centennial, were making large shipments of cattle daily to the Snydow Meat Packing Corporation, in Chicago.

Reading under the "Los Angeles Brief," I saw that Ruth Hostetter has settled down to the quiet life of matron in a home for "young girls" over forty.

"Grand Opera" — Henry Rogers, latest Metropolitan Opera Singer, will be heard every Monday night at 6:00 P. M., over station LAB, singing his famous theme song, "Each Night As I Lay on My Pillow."

I had "browsed" until I was sleepy. Closing my eyes, I had visions of former days at old Morrison High School and the dear classmates of which I had read.

KATHERINE EDWARDS, '37.

CREED

The time for each of us to go forth and make a place for himself in life is nearing all too quickly. However, it is because of our beliefs that we will be able to do this.

First and Supremely, we believe in God our Creator and Preserver.

We believe in our United States of America, the greatest country in the world. To it we pledge our wholehearted and undying allegiance.

Also to the Old Dominion State, Virginia, we pledge our love and support.

Then, we believe in our school where we have received the basis education which will enable us to accomplish our aims in life.

Our principal, Mr. Mort, who has believed in us and constantly urged us onward deserves our sincerest appreciation.

We believe in the teachers and instructors who have worked so hard to implant in us the fundamentals of education and fair play. To them we are deeply indebted.

And last, we believe in our own, the Senior class. We are convinced that those who have worked together for these last four years will conscientiously assume his position and responsibility in life.

Because of these beliefs we are nearer our goal.

WARNER MCPHAIL, '37.

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1937, as we finish our happy stay in dear old Morrison, do declare this our last will and testament.

First, to Mr. Mort, our principal, we give and bequeath our kindest regards and sincere appreciation for the kind help he has given us.

Second, to Mrs. Geddy and Miss Pitts, the Senior home room teachers, we will a more attentive Senior class.

Third, to our sister class, the sophomore, we will our dignity.

Fourth, to the Juniors we will the Senior privileges, including a high powered microscope so they can find them.

To the remaining, the members of the class wish to bequeath their personal assets as follows:

Harry Atkinson wills his argumentative nature to Virginia Weltmer.

Roger Auman wills his handsome looks to Broaddus Haughton.

Elmo Bloxom wills his affection for Ethel Auman to Pat Patterson.

Roscoe Bowers leaves his popularity to David Hostetter.

To Eugene Cochran, Kenneth Bradshaw wills his friendly ways.

To Bruce Barclay, Roy Dolan wills his football ability.

Bob Dudley wills his extra inches to John Schafer.

Bobb Dunn wills his attractiveness to Alfred Varnarsdale.

Charles Hartman wills his "Ruth-ful" ways to whoever can compete with him.

Lee Hawley wills his freckles to Edward Irby

Dick Hunter wills his dancing ability to Edward Parker.

To Luther Wright, Warwick Marshall wills his dignified manners.

Warner McPhail wills his A number 1 radio voice to Mr. Mort.

John Pollock wills his bashfulness to Jim Givens.

Jack Preston wills his laziness to Jack Cardoza.

Aubrey Robertson wills his knowledge of history to Mrs. Geddy.

To Haywood Thacker, Henry Rogers wills his school spirit.

Madison Russell wills his ability to speak good English to Louise Watson.

Jack Snyder wills his ability to solve Chemistry problems to Audrey Cooke.

Robert Ware wills his athletic ability to Robert Turlington.

Wilmer Wilbern wills his intelligence to Russell Rowe.

Stuart Fuller wills his economic ability to Robert Floyd.

Maurice Hawley wills his position as truck driver to anyone lucky enough to get the job next year.

Arlyn Abbott wills her witty ways to June Burkholder.

To Mary Stuart Hornsby, Evelyn Barnhart wills her dreamy eyes.

Nell Cochran wills her "hot air broadcasting" ability to Alice Weeks

Irene Butterworth wills her love of Jones's peanuts to Lois Wiseman.

Laura Mae Butler wills her quietness to Thelma Cox.

Katherine Edwards wills her ability to "cackle" to Dorothy Wood.

Mildred Elkins wills her attractiveness to Ethel Auman.

To Virginia Henley, Emily Gayle wills her love of military uniforms.

Opal Haughton wills her desire for 24 "Akers" to anyone who wants to raise "Mutts."

Ruth Hostetter, as champion gum chewer, wills her speed and ability to anyone who can qualify.

Pearl Owens wills her likeness of "Clearance" sales to anyone who can afford the "Price."

Alice Traylor wills her hate of the opposite sex to Elva Poindexter.

Mary Alice Waters wills her originality to Martha Knight.

Forrestine Whitaker wills her ability to wear clothes to Helen Wood.

Rachel Parker wills her affections for Tom Harlow to Mildred Joyner.

Klyne Cox wills her interest in the A. and P. to Irene Acree.

Dorothy Curtis wills her position as class flirt to Catherine Fowler.

Lorraine Turlington wills her likeness of "Curtis" bars to anyone who has a nickle.

Adelaide Richardson wills her musical ability to Dorothy Langslow.

Mary Barclay wills her basketball ability to her cousin Anne Barclay.

And I, Mary Frances White, will my position as Executrix of the Senior Class to anyone the Class of '38 may elect.

MARY FRANCES WHITE, '37.
